LOAN FUND I AND DAVIES-JONES MEMORIAL FUND

Fair Processing Notice

In order to process your application for an advance from Loan Fund I and/or the Davies Jones Memorial Fund it will be necessary for the University to hold and process certain personal data about you and (if necessary) any person who acts as a guarantor in connection with the advance. This data will have been obtained from you as a part of the application process.

The University will hold the information necessary to enable the Loan Fund I and Davies-Jones Memorial Fund Committee (the Committee) to consider and approve your application. If your application is successful then the University will also hold your bank details to enable repayments to be made in accordance with the agreement you enter into at the time the advance is made. If the University is unable to trace you whilst any amount of any advance remains unpaid then the University may share your data with third parties (your College, the University's Alumni Office or tracing agents) to locate you and arrange for repayment of the advance.

Your data will be held by the University Pensions Office who are responsible for the administration of Loan Fund I and the Davies-Jones Memorial Fund.

If your application is unsuccessful your application and any associated paper work will be destroyed following the next annual meeting of the Committee.

If your application is successful your application and any associated paperwork will be destroyed following the next annual meeting of the Committee after the advance has been repaid in full.

It is important to inform the Committee about any changes to your personal detail to ensure that the information held is accurate and kept up to date. If you need to do this or wish to know more about the information held by the Committee please contact the University's Pensions Office using the following details:

Pensions Office
University of Cambridge
Greenwich House
Maddingley Road
Cambridge
CB3 0TX

In addition you are entitled to request access to or removal of any personal data being held by the Committee.

If you have a complaint about the Committee's management of your data, you have a right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office, which can be contacted on 0303 123 12113 or via other methods of communication as explained on their website (<https://ico.org.uk>)
