This statement gives you an update on the estimated financial position of the Cambridge University Press Senior Staff Pension Scheme (the Scheme).

The Scheme is a Defined Benefit scheme. This means that it gives you an income for life.

The Trustee uses the assets of the Scheme to pay pensions to Scheme members, including those members who have not yet retired. The assets are held separately from Cambridge University Press (the Press). Assets can only be returned to the Press if they are more than is needed to arrange for an insurance company to pay all benefits. No such payment to the Press has been made since the date of the last statement.

Working out the value of the benefits promised to members – how much money we need to pay all the members’ pensions – is not an exact science. It depends on several things, including inflation, investment returns and how long its members live.

A full valuation is carried out every three years. As part of the valuation, the Scheme’s actuary calculates whether the assets are worth more than the amount we think is needed to pay out the benefits. If that is not the case, then the Trustee and the Press will agree what action needs to be taken.

Changes in the value of the Scheme’s assets and the money needed to pay benefits over the past three years are shown below. The next full valuation will review the position as at 1 January 2022. This will take up to 15 months to complete.

This update states the estimated position of the Scheme as at 1 January 2021.

Since the last update (as at 1 January 2020), the shortfall has increased. The main reason for this is changes in market conditions, which has led to a higher value being placed on the amount needed to pay benefits.

When the value of benefits is greater than the assets held, the Press and Trustee must agree a plan to safeguard members’ pensions by making sure the assets catch up.

At the last valuation as at 1 January 2019, the Press agreed to pay £2.3m per year from 1 January 2020 to 30 April 2024 to top up the assets of the Scheme.

The assets

The Trustee has an investment strategy in place to make the most of the Scheme’s assets by holding a mix of investments in the following way:

- Equities: 37%
- Diversified Growth Funds: 35%
- Bonds: 20%
- Property: 8%

Within each investment class, we aim to hold a mixture of assets.

As a consequence of the disruption caused to financial markets by the impact of COVID-19, 2020 was a very challenging year. Despite this, the Scheme’s assets have returned 3% during 2020.

Winding up the Scheme – The buy-out position

If the Press, which effectively acts on behalf of the University, wants to let go of its responsibility for the Scheme, or is unable to support the Scheme, the Scheme will be wound up. This means that the Press / the University will have to pay a one-off contribution to the Scheme to cover the extra cost of getting an insurance company to take on the responsibility of paying all Scheme benefits. If this had happened at 1 January 2019 the contribution required from the Press / the University would have been an estimated £65.4m.

The Pensions Regulator looks after work-based pension schemes and has certain powers it can use if it has concerns about a scheme. It has not used any of these powers in relation to the Scheme.

Additional protection

If an employer becomes insolvent, the Pension Protection Fund can pay compensation to members in certain circumstances. Further details are available at www.pensionprotectionfund.co.uk.

If you are thinking of leaving the Scheme for any reason, you should consult a professional adviser, such as an independent financial adviser, before taking action. You are legally required to do so if the value of the transfer exceeds £30,000.

Pension scams

We urge you to be vigilant against pension scams. Should you have any unsolicited approaches from companies offering to undertake pension reviews, or offering you an opportunity to access your pension fund early, please visit the Financial Conduct Authority website before taking any action:
